

PASSING TIME

2013 PASSING TIME CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Passing Time is pleased to announce their second vintage, the 2013 vintage Cabernet Sauvignon. In production, this was affectionately known as “Danny’s Vintage” because Dan Marino will forever be known as number 13, like this wine.

Appellation: Horse Heaven Hills

Vineyards: Discovery, Champoux

Cases: 450

Blend: 97% Discovery Cabernet sauvignon
3% Champoux Cabernet Franc

Aging: 21 months, 80% new French oak

Release: April 2016

TASTING NOTES

The 2013 Passing Time is a dark and brooding beast, opaque purple out to the rim. The nose is filled with dark fruits: pure, focused black cherry, blackberry, currant, espresso, and a hint of crushed lavender. This wine is rich and lush on the entry, with great weight in the mid-palate. Flavors of dusty vanilla, cacao, deep dark fruits and mountain flowers lead to a long, structured finish. This wine should be delicious upon release and cellar well for a decade or more.

-Winemaker, Chris Peterson